Charlotte Solnicki Story (English)

Although Charlotte Solnicki is a sexy, vivacious, intelligent, strong, ambitious woman who loves to travel and lives life to the fullest, she is a fictitious character conceived by Argentine sisters Melina and Jessica Solnicki of their ideal woman.

In 2002, the Solnicki sisters arrived in the United States with a few samples of their contemporary collection, appropriately named Charlotte Solnicki. From only three rushed perforated leather jackets and fun, colorful cotton beach pants, the collection became an instant success with stores Intermix, Saks Fifth Ave., Barney's and Shopbop.com, and graced the covers of Women's Wear Daily, New York Times, and Blackbook within the first three months.

Celebrities began to take notice and before long style icons from Lindsay Lohan, Jessica Simpson, Nicole Richie, and Paris Hilton were spotted running around town in the Solnicki sisters' comfortable and stylish designs.

capture the essence of Charlotte Solnicki.

With their brother and business partner, Jonathan, the Solnicki family has strategically created a collection perfect for the jet-set traveler and party girl motif, naturally a lifestyle the girls subscribe to.

The styles are versatile and free-spirited, the wardrobe for all women who desire to

While Melina attended FIT to refine her design skills, Jessica studied architecture at the University of Buenos Aires. The melding of these art mediums can be seen in their collection from satin column dresses to brocade dome tops infused with an mélange of flirty edginess and Latin passion. Melina has been a former dancer trained and actress in her late teens when she arrived in New York.
